Moving Ahead Through Financial Management:

A program to empower victims and survivors of Intimate Partner Violence

Working Towards Financial Freedom

Nearly 1 in 4 women report abuse by a partner during their lifetimes. A lack of financial knowledge and resources deter many victims of domestic violence from leaving relationships with their abusers.

This curriculum is designed to:

- Address the challenges of ending a financial relationship with an abusive partner. Access economic empowerment resources used nationwide, including individual development accounts and emergency assistance funds.
- Deal with the misuse of financial records
- Work through the challenges of building or rebuilding credit.
