On May 6-7, 2019, domestic violence advocates, service providers, and survivors gathered in Rehoboth Beach, DE, for DCADV's 21st Advocates' Retreat and Conference. This year's theme, Balancing Healing and Justice: Restoring Ourselves and Our Community, reflected the value and need to sustain our domestic violence advocacy community. As advocates and service providers, we give so much of ourselves to the cause, both personally and professionally; it's important to balance our knowledge and skills with opportunities to reflect and recharge. Conference attendees participated in a variety of workshops to gain tools and insights to their work, all while connecting with fellow advocates and enjoying the salt air.

Upcoming Trainings

DCADV offers a semi-annual two-day Domestic Violence 101 (DV101) Training. DV101 is the Coalition's signature training event and attracts a multidisciplinary audience from across the state. Participants typically include domestic violence service providers, nonprofit organizations, law enforcement agencies, and state employees working on issues ranging from behavioral health services to human resources to the criminal justice system. DV101 provides an overview of the dynamics and prevalence of domestic violence, and teaches participants effective advocacy skills that support safety and empowerment across systems. This will be offered Sept. 18th and 19th. Online Registration opens on July 31st on our website, www.dcadv.org/news-events.

When someone discloses a trauma to you, it's hard to know what to say.

Some starters:
"Thank you for telling me."
"I believe you."
"It wasn't your fault."
"I'm here for you"
"What is the best way that I can support you right now?"
"Can I help you find some resources?"
